"Mon secret" c2009 lyrics by Angela Easterling & Marianne Bessy

English Translation

My Secret

He tells me that I am in his heart.

He tells me I am his soul mate.

He tells me that he thinks about me all the time.

He tells me that he believes this is love.

And I want to take his head in my hands, to caress his face,

To kiss his mouth as tenderly as I can, as tenderly as I can.

I wish...

But I will sing about this in French and he will know nothing.

Yes I will reveal my secret in French and he will know nothing.

He has given me his time.

He has given me his talent.

He has given me all his charms.

He has given me all his sorrow.

But he has built a wall and this wall surrounds him.

I cannot touch him.

If only he would let me, maybe I wouldn't feel this pain.

So, I will sing about this in French and he will know nothing.

Yes I will reveal my secret in French and he will know nothing.
